- 5. Counselors may coach, referee, and scorekeep; they may not compete!
- One counselor will be given responsibility for an event or part of an event so that the work load is spread around to line up judges, scorekeepers, etc.
- 7. All conferees need to participate and stay with their team during an event. The events have been designed to be fun and not athletically oriented.
- 8. Scoring starts at 10 points for the last place team and up in increments of 10 points by place. The first place team in an event will get 120 points if there are 12 teams; unless there are deductions for "sleeping beauties".
- 9. Ribbons for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams awarded each evening at Crackerbarrel. The grand prize winners - the highest point total for all five days - will be recognized on Friday morning.

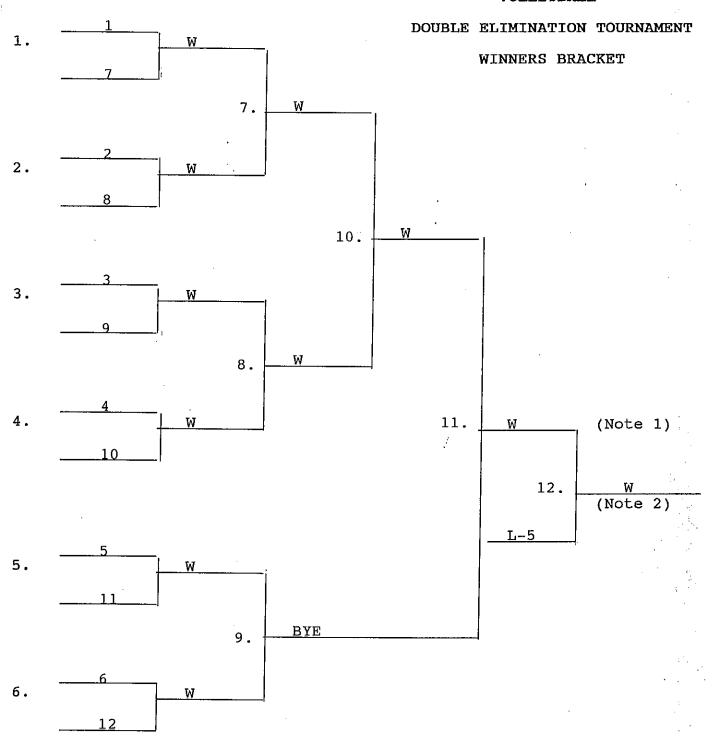

Note 1 - If the winner is the winner of match 11, the loser goes to the losers bracket. If the reverse, a second game is played and the loser goes to the loser's bracket. In case of one win each, total margin determines winner.

Note 2 - Team from loser's bracket must win twice.
