

DISTRICT RYLA COMMITTEE 1-14-89

PROS/CONS FOR JUNIOR COUNSELORS

NONE

TWO ONLY

TWELVE

- |   |   |  |
|---|---|--|
| ? | 1 - not enough age difference between Junior Counselors and campers | 1 - can work as a true assistant   |
|   | 2 - not enough jobs for twelve                                      | 2 - need Junior Counselor advisor to implement   |
|   | 3 - function as gophers for administration, cleanup, setup          | 3 - set up sessions for training at beginning of each day:1 - counseling2 - college entry3 - guest speaker |
|   | 4 - none unless Warren needs them                                   | 4 - teach beginning counseling skills to junior counselors   |
|   |   | 5 - judges for sport events  |
|   |   | 6 - help with group discussion   |
|   |   | 7 - set up facilities as needed  |
|   |   | 8 - learn how to be a self-motivated worker  |
|   |   | 9 - four groups of three each group does administration one day  |

OBJECTIVES:

- 1 Administrative helper only if needed.
- 2 Provide opportunity to use leadership skills.
- 3 Gain additional leadership information and training.

NOTES: